The South African Reserve Bank (Sarb) has left its benchmark repo rate unchanged at 6.75% following its latest Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) meeting, governor Lesetja Kganyago announced on Thursday. Kganyago said it was a unanimous decision. It took a cautious and steady approach, as widely expected, in the wake of the world being rocked by the Iran war in the Middle East since the start of the month, which has seen Brent oil prices spiral to over $100 a barrel. A new 20,000 m² coastal-inspired retail and lifestyle centre, Garden Walk, has opened in Hartenbos, offering 51 stores, dining, and community spaces. Developed by Moolman Group in partnership with Dorpstraat and Organic Coral Developments, Garden Walk has been designed to serve the growing Mossel Bay region and the broader Garden Route. The centre welcomed its first shoppers on 26 March 2026 following an official ribbon-cutting ceremony attended by project partners, municipal representatives, tenants and members of the local community. Let it not be said that Eskom doesn't look out for the little guy. Sure, it buys diesel for its generators from PetroSA and other major international players. But it also spreads the largesse. Back in 2015, for example, the Sunday Times reported that Eskom had handed diesel supply contracts to a beautician and a dentist. And in 2019, News24 reported that a Joburg copy-and-print shop was the beneficiary of such a contract. We don't know much more than that, because Eskom has kept a tight lid on its contracts with fuel suppliers – coal and diesel – and Promotion of Access to Information Act (Paia) requests have yielded little by way of useful information.
